ACROSTIC POEMS

In this activity you are going to write an ACROSTIC poem. Acrostic poems differ from other types of poems in that the first letter of each line spells a word which can be read vertically. The rhyme scheme and number of lines will vary in each poem. You can write one word per line or a number of words per line. Be sure, though, that you poem reads fluidly and smoothly and tells a story, rather than just lists adjectives that do not connect. See the examples below.

Miriam watched from behind the reeds
Once his mother placed him in the Nile.
She raced forward to offer
Help to Pharaoh's daughter, so her brother could be an Egyptian Prince.

Miracles—
Out of his
Staff he defeats
His
Egyptian enemies.

Maybe, being the
Only one to have a chance to See God's face inspired his Humility and
Enduring love of Torah.
