JEWISH SOURCES ON HATZALAH (THE POWER OF RESCUE)

VAYIKRA 19:16
Do not stand idly by while your neighbor’s blood is shed.

BABA METZIA 62a
Two people are walking along a road, and one of them has a canteen of water. If both drink, they will die. If only one of them drinks, he will reach a town. Ben Petura taught: It is better that both should drink and die rather than one witness the death of the other; until Rabbi Akiva came and taught: “That your brother may live with you” (Vayikra 25:36). Your life takes precedence over the life of your friend.

ECCLESIASTES 4:9-10
Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him that is alone when he falls, for he has not another to help him up.
